

SEE Law Journal

SEELS Network

South East European Law Journal [SEE Law Journal]

The scientific journal of the South East European Law School Network (SEELS)

SEE Law Journal publishes original papers in the English language.

The papers are double blind peer-reviewed and the Journal has international Editorial Board with academics from 6 countries.

Papers from all fields of law are accepted, especially those that focus on European and international integration of SEE countries, and in particular:

- legal reform and approximation with the acquis communautaire,
- best practices in legal reform,
- harmonization and unification of the legislation in the region of South East Europe, the EU and internationally.

Open for submission of articles prepared by Academic and Researchers; the journal's editorial policy permits the publication of papers dealing with relevant topics in the field of public interest in co-authorship of maximum 3 authors.

Two editions per year: June and December

Submission deadlines: 1st of April and 1st of November each year

Indexed in Hein Online

Extension of the deadline for the winter 2023 edition - 29th of December

Please visit <https://www.seelawschool.org> for more information

