

South East European Law Journal [SEE Law Journal]

Extension of the Deadline of the Call for Papers

The South East European Law Journal (SEE Law Journal) is a scientific English language journal of the South East European Law School Network (SEELS). The SEE Law Journal publishes high-quality original, double peer-reviewed scientific, review and professional articles focusing on relevant questions of regional, European and international integration of SEE countries, issues of legal reform and approximation with the acquis communautaire, best practices, in legal reform and unification of the legislation in the region of South East Europe and the EU.

The SEE Law Journal has two editions – summer and winter one, and two fixed deadlines – 1st of April and 1st of November for submission of papers. In this manner all of the papers received in the first half of the year would be eligible for publication in the summer issues, while the ones received in the second half of the year will be considered for the winter issue.

With the decision of the Editorial Board the deadline for the winter edition of the journal for 2023 is extended till 29th of December 2023.

The SEE Law Journal is open for submission of articles prepared by at least one academic staff member and junior researchers (PhD students) of the SEELS members and all interested academics, legal practitioners and scholars who are working in these fields. The authorship is restricted to maximum three co-authors per article.

For further instructions please see the Guidelines for Authors.

Papers should be submitted in English language via e-mail coordinator@seelawschool.org
